Ismet Pasha Objects To Postponement Of The Lausanna Conference

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS)

PARIS, Nov. 9.—Ismet Pasha, foreign minister in the Turkish Nationalist government, has informed the allied governments that any delay in holding the Lausanne peace conference would be interpreted by the Angora assembly and the Kemalist army as a sign of hostility against the Turks and an indication that the allies do not intend to live up to the conditions of the Mudania armistice.

The French government is exerting every effort to have the conference formally opened on scheduled time, Nov. 13, in order to demonstrate to the Turks the good intention of the allies.

The British are asking for postponement because of the approaching elections in England.

REPUBLICANS WILL CONTROL
NEW HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Vote Shows Republicans 224, Democrats 205, Independents 8

In Next Senate Republicans
Have 52, Democrats 21;
Two Are In Doubt

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS)

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Returns from all but three congressional districts where the results are undetermined, at noon today showed 224 Republicans, 205 Democrats, 1 Socialist, 8 Independents and 1 Farmer-Labor candidate elected to the new house of representatives.

The latest figures show that the next senate will be composed of 52 Republicans, 21 Democrats and one Farmer-Labor representative, with the result of two senatorial contests, one in Washington and the other in North Dakota, still undecided.

The two senatorial contests remaining in doubt are those in Washington, where former Representative C. C. Dill, Democrat, was leading Senator Polindexter, Republican, and the other in North Dakota, where the Democratic candidate, J. E. O'Connor, with a waning majority as more precincts came in, was leading over Governor L. J. Francis, Republican.

In the few remaining contests the fight was so close that talk of contests, recounts and the official count was made. Notable among these came from W. A. Gaston, Democrat, that he would demand a recount in his race against Senator Lodge, Massachusetts, Republican. Despite this, the latter has increased his lead, because of a tally error, from 1,945 to 8,425.

Senator Du Pont, Delaware, Republican, defeated on face of returns by Thomas Bayard, Democrat, refused to concede his defeat, and his manager said the official recount would be sought.

STILL IN DOUBT

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS)

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Whether the Republicans will have six or seven votes over the necessary majority of 218 for the control of the next house of representatives will not be known until tomorrow.

One district, the Third Kansas, is delayed, and with this district missing, the Republican line-up shows 224, the Democratic 207, Socialist 1, Farmer-Labor 1, and Independent 1.

TURKS CUT THE CABLE AT CONSTANTINOPLE EARLY TODAY

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS)

LONDON, Nov. 9.—Both the British public and the government were in the dark today regarding the grave

Turks, who are refusing to allow the cable company to repair the line.

Government officials today were asking newspaper correspondents for news.

It was said at the foreign office that the only thing to be done was to wait the report as to whether martial law had been declared in Constantinople.
